Is ten minutes enough time to get from one class to another?

Yes! Ten minutes is typically enough time to get from one class to the next.

However, we recommend that you look up your course locations on the USC University Park Campus map to determine if this is enough time for you to get from class to class.

Recommendations

If you have consecutive classes and are unable to stay after class to speak with an instructor, contact the instructor via email to ask questions or attend office hours for more in-depth discussions.

Ensure that you have a longer break of at least 30 minutes somewhere else in your day to promote balance.
